You stayed at home, and then it's 'we're going to be with married friends,' and. And a lot of girls who think you hang on to their husbands without your husband... There are the discounts that cover nonsyners .we knew that we were finally going to make money ... My parents left me with my sister-in-law because they were going somewhere. I asked my sister-in-law to play a game. Okay, what are we playing? I said, how many times can I try to rape you... I hope he still doesn't remember. I'm going to start thinking that you opened these headlines for me to write my life story, and I almost got married on March 4th ):1994, just like in this title. I've been married to the same man for 25 years since then (at the end I'm going to share a bigger bomb with you.going back in time; My wife and I met in June a year ago, when I was working at the same hotel in Bodrum. But then I looked at you and you had no such feelings or intentions, I gave up. I think I'm shocked that I get along with gin, and when I heard it, I thought I was saying, Come on, God or something. But it fell into me after something. Two or three days later, we looked and held hands. We're a long way from the family. And then we became lovers. I looked at it on July 1, and he bought me a lifting line. I ate and put the rings on a restaurant with friends from work. So we got engaged. I'm 20 at that moment, my wife, we went from the 23rd basement to the marmaris. Let's get married in August. I said, no, what the hell. The families don't know each other, we're crawling around the lodging corners, we're for working in this rush?. He said one or two more, looked at me, I show resistance, well okay, let's go meet the families when at least he changed strategy. Anyway, we went to September with my family first, which I hardly had. My father is dead, my mother is abroad, I have two sisters and only two brothers-in-law. Then we met his family, his family, big but messy. We came back after the words aren't urgent or anything. By the way, hotels are closed, the season is over, and mine is out of a job. We're in the world and in winter in-gin throwing balls there in those years. I'm going to work, my wife's taking care of the house, but what to take care of, Every place like a flower, I wake up, the table is ready, the food is cooked, the tea is inseed. My work clothes are washed and ironed like razor blades. The roles have changed, but isn't that how they should be? I'll take the maaa and take it home. We're just going to be together. Meanwhile, in Marmaris, my wife has a big circle, introducing me to them all. But interestingly, he introduces me to everyone by calling me my wife (let's put a mim here, please),he comes to me with a little package on New Year's Eve. I open the package to say: God, we have no money, what did he take?, and a tile comes out of it. What do I say, he says, a New Year's gift. I say, where's yours? Are you laughing or crying? And we decide to get married in the summer.and my wife starts a course after Christmas. the company is foreign and completes the course and the conditions are very good if they are hired. The course ends on 2 January 2018. The company wants paperwork when it starts, and that's where the movie breaks. My wife comes home 50/50. I think he wasn't hired: Forget it, don't upset me, the season is going to open, you get another job. I'm hired, I'm not bothered with him. I say, well, what's the problem? I have expressed my marital status as married in the application, the documents will show that I am single, the men would not say to me you made a false statement as well, he said. I say, well, what's going to happen now? Wait a minute! He says: We must get married immediately. Let's make our application, they give us already a day after a month, so I'll stop the business in the meantime. We're having the wedding in August. We take care of 1-2 documents and go to the application the next day. The men take the papers and say, come tomorrow morning at 10:00.m,let's have your wedding!!!. What do you mean? We start to get blah, blah, blah Do not give me a day a month from now, in the wedding hall, for weddings in the summer. Of course, in Marmaris of God, who will stand in line in March to get married. After a little tremor, we set up witnesses and go to the wedding in the morning the next day. I'll never forget that I wore Lee Cooper Jeans, a levi burgundy T-shirt. Since we don't have the money, we buy my wife a despicable wedding that has nothing to do with mine, and we meet the witnesses there and we marry. We can't invite anyone to the wedding because my wife tells everyone we're not married, but she tells me we're married. I'm going to work at 10:00. Because everyone in your field of work knows I'm already married. So I can't even use a marriage license.the biggest bomb is coming now. Since we were busy in August after we had the wedding, we didn't have a wedding because we were already looking at who was going to handle the wedding job and the parents were watching you get married anyway. You didn't want a girl anyway. So we got married in a dry marriage. The bomb is this: when these stages were ships, the families could not meet. We've been married for 25 years now, the parents have still seen each other, haven't met. I know his family and he knows my family, so maybe that's the secret to our long-term marriage, who knows... As he said, economic difficulties are overcome, political crises are resolved, but it is not possible to re-repair a society where children have been wasted. god bless you. Thanks for all you have brought to this country If she is the first Turkish mother to go to Mars, it is possible to see a jerk in hand on her first share.
